Role Title: Teaching Fellow in Fashion Image Making and Styling (0.8 FTE)

Reports To: Director of Art and Design

Overview

The University of Salford takes pride in its local roots, while also being recognized for its excellence in teaching, research and enterprise activity regionally, nationally and internationally. We sit at the heart of the Northern Powerhouse and actively engage with stakeholders across the region and beyond to embed our industry collaboration activity in the curriculum, ensuring our students receive the best possible experience and are fit for their future after graduation.

The School of Arts, Media and Creative Technology is a leading centre for practice-based education in the creative disciplines. Through significant investment in our staff and facilities, we are strengthening our position as a centre of excellence for socially engaged teaching practice and research whose graduates are sought after as content creators and for the innovative application of creative technology, both in the creative industries and across wider sectors of the economy. We have a clear vision to become a top quartile provider of practice-based education in the creative industries, continuing to advance our standing as a destination of choice for students in the UK and internationally.

Our £55 million New Adelphi flagship building offers top-quality specialist equipment and facilities to suit all creative requirements. We are also the only UK university to have a campus at MediaCityUK, an international media hub next to prestigious media organisations such as the BBC, ITV, and Dock10, with industry-standard facilities that offer a professional environment for our staff and students. The School's activities are organised into four Directorates, currently totalling around 4,800 students: Art and Design; Creative Technology, Journalism, Politics and Contemporary History; Film and Broadcast Media; and Performance, Music, English and Dance.

We are delighted that you are interested in finding out more about our current vacancy for the role of Teaching Fellow in Fashion Image Making and Styling (0.8 FTE) in the School of Arts, Media and Creative Technology.

BA (Hons) Fashion Image Making and Styling is a progressive programme where individual creativity is encouraged and nurtured throughout the course, leading to confident and professional image-makers who understand the process from concept to outcome. The programme offers a broad experience, concentrating on styling and photography and helping students to develop high levels of analytical skills, critical judgement and the ability to learn independently. The programme also helps students acquire technical skills and the understanding necessary for the effective realisation of creative fashion concepts. Our students become multi-skilled, professional individuals, able to adapt themselves to the specific needs of society and to the fulfilment of their own creativity. Students regularly work with clients such as Selfridges, Magma, Man About Town, Motel and Vivienne Westwood. In addition students regularly win prestigious awards, most recently at Graduate Fashion Week ('Best Fashion Photographer' and 'Best Styling Direction').

The successful candidate will develop and deliver high-quality teaching across a range of modules at all levels of the BA (Hons) Fashion Image Making and Styling programme. They will support student recruitment and conversion activity to this programme and will also be expected to contribute to the planning, design and development of associated programmes within Art and Design.

This is a fractional (0.8 FTE), permanent position and the starting salary is £34,304 per annum (pro rata).

We are committed to promoting a truly diverse and inclusive community, a place where we can all be ourselves and succeed on merit. We offer a range of family friendly, inclusive employment policies, flexible and agile working arrangements, staff engagement forums, campus facilities and services to support staff from different backgrounds. Our student population is already incredibly diverse and we want to ensure that this is reflected across our colleague profile as well. We particularly encourage applications from women and individuals from minority ethnic backgrounds. We also operate a guaranteed interview scheme for job applicants who declare they have a disability and meet the essential criteria of the job they are applying for.

There is a varied benefits package available through 'My Salford' where you can tailor your benefits to suit your own lifestyle – everything from additional annual leave, savings on High Street shopping, travel discounts as well as health and wellbeing support. However you identify, whatever your pathway has been to get here, come and join us at the University of Salford where we are all proud to belong!

Within your cover letter/personal statement, please address how you meet the criteria listed in the person specification below. Please note it is anticipated that interviews will take place shortly after the closing date of this advertisement.

Informal enquires about this role can be made to: Paul Vivian, Director of Art and Design (p.f.vivian@salford.ac.uk).
