

Hourly Paid Academic - Law

A bit about the Salford Business School...

Salford Business School is at the forefront of expanding opportunity and access in higher education. With a strong focus on the student experience, we are committed to excellent, inclusive teaching that prepares our students for professional employment and inspires them to achieve their ambitions. We deliver across a range of subject areas and are currently expanding provision through new partnerships and a developing portfolio of higher and degree apprenticeships. Through our Industrial Collaboration policy, our teaching, research and civic engagement make a real impact across business, public services and our community. Salford Business School was one of the first Business Schools to receive the Small Business Charter and the first to gain a Social Enterprise Gold Mark.

At Salford Business School we strive to foster the development of an inclusive community, using teaching approaches which encourage inclusivity, working in partnership with students to improve their sense of belonging, diversifying the curriculum and using approaches to inclusive assessment to close the award gap.

To help us build that exciting future for the School we are seeking suitably qualified and enthusiastic individuals to join us as Hourly Paid Academics (hourly paid flexible working arrangements) to teach on campus as part of our module teams and/or supervise postgraduate dissertations and projects.

So what will the role involve?

We are particularly seeking staff with postgraduate qualifications in law, excellent communication skills, high standards of professionalism and a positive collegiate mind set, who have previous experience of teaching undergraduate (Levels 4-6) and/or postgraduate students.

We would be particularly interested in hearing from you if you can teach:

- Any of the seven foundation subjects of law (Contract, Tort, Criminal, Public, EU, Land and/or Equity)
- Legal Skills
- Intellectual Property
- Artificial Intelligence and Law

To apply please attach a copy of your cv and a 2 page cover letter. Please include your availability both for a conversation with someone from the School and for work in your application. Please also indicate which of the above specialism(s) are of interest and in line with your skillset.
